Rumford Court

This is about 100 yards along Rumford Place on the right. We have one space for a car immediately in front of our building, so if you telephone ahead we will keep it free for you if we can. If not, there are car parks and street parking all around. Once you have parked, walk in through the archway and then turn immediately left through another archway into the inner courtyard and our building is on the right, clearly marked.
